HUGH W. DOUGALL.

Mr. Dougall will have charge of a musical program to be given by his pupils at the Twentieth Ward chapel Tuesday evening.

SONGS OF JOY AND GLADNESS

Kelsey, Miss Florence Adkins, Miss Ada Blank, Miss Florence Winn, Mrs. Hanson and Miss Myrtle Player. Organist, Miss M. E. Youart.

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN.

Special music at the morning service of Westminster Presbyterian church, 1 O. O. F. hall: Anthem—While the Shepherds Watch. Anthem—Praise Ye the Father. Gounod Solo—The Ninety and Nine. Campion. Miss Zimmerman. Anthem—Hark, Hark, My Soul. H. F. Shelly. Choir: Soprano—Miss Rose Smith, alto—Miss Edith Evans, Miss Mary Beach, basses—Mr. Stevens, Mr. Howell; tenors—Mr. Hooper, Mr. A. Hudson. Organist—Miss Jenette Williamson.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Mrs. Harold L. Siegel, who has been visiting in San Francisco for the past few weeks, has returned to her home in Nevada. Mr. and Mrs. Siegel are expected in the city this week to spend the holidays with Mrs. Siegel's mother, Mrs. C. Berkhoe, in the Meredith apartments.

Miss Edna Duncan, a well known local soprano, who has been studying for the past two years in Berlin, is now located in Paris, where she is a pupil of Jean de Reszke. Miss Duncan has a magnificent soprano voice which has received much praise abroad. Miss Duncan will continue her musical studies during the winter and expects to return home early in the summer.

Miss Josephine Morrison, the talented young harpist, appeared with marked success last week at the new Mission theatre, and her playing was greatly appreciated by the audience.

Tracy Y. Cannon will play a number of organ selections this evening at 6 o'clock at the Cannon ward meeting house. This will be the first time that the new Estey organ recently placed in the chapel has been used.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church will sing an anthem, "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Shelley, at the morning service today, while in the evening they will sing "Grant Us Peace," by Dudley Buck.

For the morning service at St. Paul's church today the "Te Deum," by Scott, will be sung by the choir with a soprano solo by Miss Florence Locke. The offertory selection will be a bass solo by W. E. Sharpe.

The offertory selection at St. Mark's Episcopal church this morning will be an anthem, "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord," by Garrett, sung by the choir, with a soprano solo by Miss Isabel Osborne, and a bass solo by George R. King.

The musical program for the church services this morning at the First Methodist church will include an anthem, "Grant, We Beseech Thee," by Johnson, sung by the choir. As an offertory number, a mezzo soprano will be sung by Miss Emma Heckner, with violin obligato by Claude J. Nettleton. In the evening the anthem, "O, Paradise," by Brown, will be sung by Miss Leola Schrack and the choir. A duet will be given by Miss Gail Mills and Earle Kibby. The music will be in charge of Mrs. W. A. Wetzell, choir director, and Mrs. J. Strohauer will preside at the organ.

The music section of the Ladies' Literary club held a pleasing meeting at their club rooms Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The following program was given: Papers were read on the "Development of Opera," by Mrs. W. S. Gray, and on "Gounod" and his opera, "Faust," by Mrs. R. Oglesby. These papers were interesting and showed careful preparation. Mrs. Charles Daily sang a charming solo, and
